

Do They Look In Love? What Does Their Body Language Reveal?

By: Patti Wood MA, CSP

Patti weighed in on Bachelor Ben and his "fiancé" Courtney's body language as they were eating dinner with Ben's sister and her boyfriend for Hollywoodlife.com. Read her insights below! Also, read the full article in Hollywoodlife.com at the link below.

Patti's insights -

Courtney is "sheltering" with her head tilted toward and shoulder closest to him down toward him. That shows she feels he can protect her. The fingers on his hand that's around her shoulder are nicely relaxed and spread and his thumb is actually resting up and her shoulder in a protective hold. I see loving care between them.
